FREIGHT RATES RAISED

Extra Wages to Employees Pollowed by 10 Per Cent. Increase. ROME, Sept. 13 -Railroad freights in Ammunition Company, walked out to-day when Superintendent Woodbury notified them that a revision of the piece work prices to which the men had objected would stand.

The entire production of the plant is crippled by the strike. Barrel straightening is one of the most highly developed arts of the munition industry. Its acquirement is impossible except by long practice and under the utmost superior or piloted boats night and day because of the war.

The newspapers are orging that inasmuch as the wages of railroad em-ployees have been increased steps should be taken to favor other classes of workmen thrown out of employment by the war, some of whom are on the firing lin
